Financepeer Relief Funds

Financepeer, India's leading lending platform, is committed to supporting our Community and the government in successfully carrying out the lockdown period due to COVID-19 outbreak. Financepeer is therefore taking an initiative to support the financially stressed people at the bottom of the pyramid who are most affected by the coronavirus effect. These are the last mile workers of an organization whose daily lives are gravely affected by this lockdown.

Financepeer will be providing grants to these organizations as relief funds. A person can be a part of this initiative by donating RS100-Rs 500 via Financepeer platform. As citizens of India, it is our responsibility to help our fellow community members in this hour of need and also contribute towards our country's economy.
